ARTICLE IX

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- A. 1. In any proceeding brought by or in the right of the corporation, or brought by or on behalf of the members of the corporation, no officer or director shall be liable for any damages assessed against him or her.
- 2. In any proceeding against an officer or director who receives compensation from the corporation while the corporation is exempt from income taxation under Section 501(c) of the Code for his or her services as such, the damages assessed arising out of a single transaction, occurrence or course of conduct shall not exceed the amount of compensation received by the officer or director from the corporation during the twelve months immediately preceding the act or omission for which liability was imposed. An officer or director who serves the corporation, while it is exempt from income taxation under Section 501(c) of the Code, without compensation for his or her services shall not be liable for damages in any such proceeding.

- 3. The liability of an officer or director shall not be limited as provided in the above subsections A.1. and 2. If the officer or director engaged in willful misconduct, a knowing violation of the criminal law or a determination is made pursuant to Article X that the officer or director is not entitled to indemnification.
- B. 1. Directors and officers of the corporation while it is exempt from income taxation under Section 501(c) of the Code who serve without compensation shall be immune from civil liability for acts taken in their capacities as officers or directors of the corporation.
- 2. In any proceeding against a director or officer of the corporation, while it is exempt from income taxation under Section 501(c) of the Code, who receives compensation, the damages assessed for acts taken in his or her capacity as an officer or director and arising out of a single transaction, occurrence or course of conduct shall not exceed the amount of compensation received by the officer or director during the twelve months immediately preceding the act or omission for which liability was imposed. As used herein, "compensation" shall mean payment for services over and above per diem and expenses.
- 3. The liability of an officer or director shall not be limited as provided in the above subsections B.1. and 2. If the officer or director engaged in willful misconduct or a knowing violation of the criminal law, liability derived from the operation of a motor vehicle or a determination is made pursuant to Article X that the officer or director is not entitled to indemnification.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHERS

- A. The corporation shall indemnify a person who entirely prevails in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding. The corporation shall also indemnify a person made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director or officer against liability incurred in the proceeding if it has been determined that such person has met the appropriate standard of conduct described herein and liability is not incurred as a result of (i) willful misconduct; (ii) a knowing violation of the criminal law; or (iii) personal benefit improperly received.
- B. The corporation shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if (i) the director or officer furnishes the corporation a written statement of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the appropriate standard of conduct as described herein; (ii) the director or officer furnishes the corporation a written undertaking to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he or she did not meet the standard of conduct (which undertaking shall be an unlimited, unsecured general obligation of the director or officer without reference to financial ability to make repayment); and (iii) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this Article.

- C. The corporation may indemnify or contract in advance to indemnify any person made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was an employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, to the same extent as if such person were a director or officer of the corporation.
- D. The provisions of this Article shall not be deemed to prohibit the corporation from entering into contracts otherwise permitted by law with any persons, including those listed above, for the purpose of conducting the business of the corporation.
- E. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance to indemnify it against the whole or any portion of the liability assumed by it in accordance with this Article and may also procure insurance, in such amounts as the corporation may determine, on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any such person in any such capacity or arising from his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.
- F. The provisions of this Article shall be applicable to all actions, claims, suits or proceedings commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from any action taken or failure to act before or after such adoption. No amendment, modification or repeal of this Article shall diminish the rights provided hereby or diminish the right to indemnification with respect to any claim, issue or matter in any then pending or subsequent proceeding that is based in any material respect on any alleged action or failure to act prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.
 - G. For purposes of this Article X the following definitions shall apply:

"Expenses" include counsel fees, expert witness fees, and costs of investigation, litigation and appeal, as well as any amounts expended in asserting a claim for indemnification.

"Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

"Person" means any corporation, association, partnership, organization, business, individual or government or political subdivision thereof or any governmental agency.

"Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, proceeding or appeal, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal.

"Standard of Conduct" - A person will have meet the appropriate standard of conduct if such person:

- (a) conducted himself or herself in good faith;
- (b) believed:
 - (i) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that his or her conduct was in its best interests; and
 - (ii) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and
- (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or conduct was unlawful.

A person's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose he or she believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of paragraph (b)(ii) above.

"Determination of Indemnification" - The determination that a person has met the appropriate standard of conduct and, if so, the determination of the amount of indemnification shall be made:

- (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; or
- (b) if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which directors who are parties may participate in such designation), consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; or
- (c) by special legal counsel:
 - (i) selected by the Board of Directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (a) or (b) above; or

(ii) if such a quorum of the Board of Directors cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be designated, selected by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors, in which directors who are parties may participate in such selection.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the determination is made by special legal counsel that indemnification of the person is permissible, evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection (c) above to select such counsel.

"Gender" - The use of "he", "him" or "his" (or "she", "her" or "hers") shall be read as "it" or "its", and vice versa, as the context shall require.

ARTICLE XI

DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the lawful debts and liabilities of the corporation, distribute all the assets of the corporation \overline{to} one or m ore of the following categories of recipients as the board of directors of the corporation shall determine:

- A. a nonprofit organization or organization which may have been created to succeed the corporation as long as such organization or each of such organizations shall then qualify as a governmental unit under section 170(c) of the Code or as an organization exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code; and/or
- B. a nonprofit organization or organizations having similar aims and objects as the corporation and which may be selected as an appropriate recipient of such assets, as long as such organization or each of such organizations shall then qualify as a governmental unit under section 170(c) of the Code or as an organization exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
