AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND
Of Ministry of Miracles, Inc.

ARTICLE I
NAME OF CORPORATION

The name of the organization, a corporation not for profit existing under the laws of the State of Florida, shall be: Ministry of Miracles, Inc.

ARTICLE II PURPOSES

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized:

1. To bring healing, deliverance, and hope to the peoples.
2. To teach and preach the Word of God.
3. To minister and council, to bring financial support, to feed and clothe the poor, to support churches, ministries, and missions.
4. The Ministry of Miracles is dedicated to the rebuilding of peoples lives and our commitment to that Restoration.
5. The outreach of the Ministry of Miracles is to be a source of blessing and Restoration to our Nation's Communities.

ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP

The corporation shall have one class of members with voting rights designated as administrative members. Thirty (30%) percent of the administrative members shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of administrative members.

The administrative members of the corporation shall consist of the members from time to time of the Board of Directors of the Ministry of Miracles, Inc. a Florida not-for Profit Corporation. The Board of Directors shall have a full discretionary power to admit additional administrative members from time to time.

No member of any classification shall have any vested right, interest or privilege of, in or to the assets, functions, affairs or franchises of the corporation, or right interested or privileges which shall be transferable or inheritable or which shall continue if his membership ceases for any reason. Membership of any member of any classification shall cease upon his resignation. The Board of Directors shall have full discretionary power to expel any member of any classification for any reason whatever, provided, that before membership shall cease against his consent, a member shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the Board of Directors or a committee designated by the Board, unless he/she is absent from the state of Florida.

ARTICLE IV

DIRECTORS

Section 1. The business of the corporation shall be managed and its corporate powers exercised by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have full management and control of the policies, activities, funds and all affairs of any and every nature of the corporation.

Section 2. The corporation shall have initially four (4) directors, chosen as hereinafter provided. The Directors may occupy officer's position such as, the President, the Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and the directors of the welfare of the departments of the Corporation, and the directors of such other departments thereof as the board may from time to time establish, shall be included as ex officio members of the said board, with the right of voice, but without voting privilege.

Section 3. The directors shall hold office for a term of two (2) years. Directors so elected shall hold office during the term for which chosen and until the election and qualifications of their successors; provided, however, that the office of any director who shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the board may be declared vacant by a majority vote of the other directors present at any regular or special meeting of the board. Members serving on the board of directors shall be eligible for re-election.

Section 4. At all meetings of the board of directors, each director shall have one (1) vote. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of board of directors.

Section 5. Vacancies in the board of directors occurring between annual meetings shall be filled for the unexplained portion of the term by a majority vote of the remaining directors.

Section 6. The Board of Directors shall designate and establish Officers' salaries and any other mean of payment and benefits for the Officers of the Organization. Moreover, the salary has to be set according to the industry and the function and responsibilities of the Officers. Furthermore, any expenditure presented for payment by an Officer, has to be authorized by the Board before any payment could be made. In addition, any usage of company's credit card by an Officer has to be approved and authorized before any purchase could be made with it.

ARTICLE V
MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Regular meeting of the directors of the corporation shall be held at 10:00 Am the first Saturday of January, March, September and November of each year, at the headquarters of the corporation in the City of Heathrow, Florida provided, however, that the board of directors may fix a different hour and via telephone conference call and designate a different place within the State of Florida for holding such meetings. The January meeting of each year shall be denominated the "annual meeting of the corporation" for the purpose of selecting members, electing officers and transacting any other business legally coming before it.

Section 2. Special meetings of the directors shall be held when directed by the president or, in his absence, by the vice president, or the board of directors, or when requested in writing by four (4) members thereof.

Section 3. A notice of each regular meeting, signed by the secretary, shall be mailed to each administrative member and each ex officio director of record, not less than ten (10) days prior thereto; provided, however, that in lieu of such manner of notice the secretary may notify each such member of the time, place and purpose of such meeting by causing to appear in the official newsletter of the corporation, in the issue immediately preceding the date of such meeting, an announcement thereof. Similar notice of each meeting shall be mailed to each administrative member and each ex officio director of record, not less than five (5) days prior thereto, provided however, when some exigency of the moment requires, a special meeting may be held, if the secretary shall have given notice, in person or by telephone, to each such person, at least forty-eight (48) hours prior thereto.

Section 4. Each administrative member of the corporation shall be entitled to one (1) vote on any question before a meeting. There shall be no voting proxy. An ex officio member if the board shall have the right of voice, but without voting privilege, at any meeting thereof.

Section 5. Two (2) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the corporation, but any member if directors, even if less than a quorum, may adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place.

ARTICLE VI
OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Section 1. This corporation shall have a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer. They shall be chosen by the board of directors, each for a term of two (2) years, at the annual meeting of the corporation, and shall assume their duties at that time to serve until their successors are chosen and qualify. The president and vice president shall be chosen from the membership of the board but the secretary and treasurer may be chosen from the nonmembers therein.

Section 2. The board, at the annual meeting of the corporation, shall appoint, for a term of one year, (1) directors of the various departments within the corporation. The board may appoint such officers, directors, and employees, as it shall deem necessary that shall have such authority prescribe. All such officers and department heads shall assume their duties at the time of election to serve until their successors are chosen and qualify. - B. He/She shall present at each annual meeting of the corporation a report of the condition of the business of the corporation;
- C. He/She shall cause to be called regular and special meetings of the director's in accordance with these by-laws.
- D. He/She shall, unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, appoint and remove, employ and discharge all employees of this corporation, subject to approval of the board of directors; provided however, that all compensation for such appointees shall be fixed only by the board.
- E. He/She shall sign and draft all contracts and agreements in the name of the corporation;
- F. He/She shall see that the books, reports, statements and certificates required by the statutes are properly kept, made and filed according to law.
- G. He/She shall sign all notes, checks, drafts or bills of exchange, warrants or other orders for the payment of money duly drawn by the treasurer, unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors;
- H. He/She shall appoint members to serve on committees, in such number and manner as the by-lays may provide, and shall be a member ex officio of each such committee except the nominating committee; and
He/She shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

Section 5. During the absence or inability of the president to render and perform his duties or exercise his powers, as set forth in these by-laws, or in the acts under which this corporation is organized, the same shall be performed and exercised by the vice president; and when so doing, the vice president shall have all the powers and be subject to all the responsibilities hereby given to or imposed upon such president. In case of a vacancy in the office of president, for any cause, the vice president shall succeed to that office for unexpired term and shall perform such other duties such as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

Section 6. The secretary shall have custody of, and maintain, all of the corporate records except the financial records; he/she shall record the minutes of all meetings of the board of directors, unless the board otherwise directs; he/she shall send out all notices of meetings required by these by-laws, and shall be custodian of the corporate seal of the corporation and shall affix the same when required; he/she shall keep the membership books in the manner prescribed by law so as to show the names and addresses of all members of the corporation and the respective classes of membership; he/she shall present to the board of directors at their stated meetings all communications addressed to them officially by the president or any officer or member of the corporation; and he/she shall attend to all correspondence and perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary.

Section 8. The treasurer shall have custody of all corporate funds and financial records, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements and render account thereof at the annual meeting of the corporation and whenever else required by the board of directors or the president. He/she shall sign, make and endorse, in the name of the corporation checks, drafts, warrants, and orders for the payment of money, and pay out the dispose of same and receipt thereof, under the direction of the president or the board of directors, and shall perform other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors or president. Further he/she shall deposit all funds of the corporation in the name of the corporation in such bank or banks, trust company or trust companies, or safe deposit vaults as the board of directors may designate; he/she shall exhibit at all reasonable times his/her books and accounts to any director of the corporation upon application at the office of the corporation during business hours; he/she shall, if required by the board of directors, give the corporation such security for the faithful discharge of his/her duties as the board may specify.

Section 9. The president and vice president shall not receive any salary or compensation for the performance of duties as required herein.

Section 10. The board of directors may employ and fix the compensation to be paid headquarters personnel, including, but not limited to, the secretary, the treasurer, department heads, and to prescribe the duties of such personnel.
