ARTICLE VI
PURPOSES

Section 1. The purpose for which this Corporation is formed is exclusively charitable, educational and scientific and consists of the following:

- A. To raise the economic, educational and social levels of the residents of the Leon County and target areas, including members of the minority community, who are substantially unemployed, under employed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to foster and promote community-wide interest and concern for the problems of said residents to the end that:
- 1) educational and economic opportunities may be expanded;
 - 2) sickness, poverty, crime, and environmental degradation may be lessened;
 - 3) racial tensions, prejudice, and discrimination, economic, and otherwise, may be eliminated.
 - 4) To expand the opportunities available to said residents and groups to own, manage, and operate business enterprises in economically depressed areas; to assist said residents and groups in developing entrepreneurial and management skills necessary for the successful operation of business enterprises; and to assist said residents and groups in obtaining support from other sources.
- B. To expand opportunities available to said residents and groups to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodations by constructing, rehabilitating, and providing decent, safe and sanitary housing in the target area(s) for persons and families of low-income who otherwise would not be able to find or to afford a suitable place to live. It is the purpose of the Corporation thereby to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and to promote the social welfare. To provide such housing rehabilitation of existing substandard buildings and construction management of new facilities in the place of blighted structures of blighted vacant sites for the purpose of combating the deterioration of the community and by contributing to its physical improvement.
- C. To aid, support, and assist by gifts, contributions, or otherwise, other corporations, community chest, funds and foundations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.
- D. To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

- E. All of the foregoing purposes shall be exercised exclusively charitable and educational purposes in such a manner that the Corporation will qualify as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE VII
EXEMPT PURPOSES ONLY

Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt for federal and state income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE VIII
NON-PROFIT PURPOSES ONLY

Section 1. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

Section 2. The Corporation is not organized nor shall be operated for the primary purpose of generating pecuniary gain or profit.

Section 3. The Corporation shall not distribute any gains, profits or dividends to the Directors, Officers, or Members thereof, or to any individual, except as reasonable compensation for services actually performed in carrying out the Corporation's charitable and educational purposes.

Section 4. The property, assets, profits and net income of the Corporation are irrevocably dedicated to charitable and educational purposes, no part of which shall inure to the benefit of any individual.

ARTICLE IX
NON-POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Section 1. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

Section 2. The Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE X
DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Upon winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation remaining after payment of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to an organization recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to be used exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

Section 2. If the Corporation holds any assets in trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the Circuit Court of the district in which the Corporation's principal office is located, upon petition thereof by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation.

ARTICLE XI
