SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

We, the undersigned person(s) residents of the State of Florida and citizens of the United States, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a not-for-profit corporation pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and adopt(s) the following articles of incorporation for such corporation.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation shall be NEW ELGLISE DE DIEU SELF-EDUCATIONAL PENTECOSTAL, INC.
Inc., with its principal place of meeting(s) at 160 N.W. 54 Street, Miami, Fla., and such other places within or without the United States as may be designated by said not-for-profit corporation.

ARTICLE II

Duration

The period of this corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law. The not-for-profit corporation existence shall commence upon the filing of this document at the Secretary of State level of Florida, and other States as directed by its Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

Specific and Primary Purposes

"To offer direct leadership in promoting positive self-educated solutions for our Pentecostal and other members in responsible citizenship in the United States, adhering to constitutional laws, and to offer an on-going and continuous self-educational course(s) of responsible citizenship within American Society".

ARTICLE IV

General and Objective Purposes

a. To organize by direct leadership a United States national and worldwide international body of mature and responsible men and women to interest themselves individually and collectively in the welfare of themselves and others who relate to one or more of the specific and primary purposes of the corporation in a substantial manner.

The corporation has been organized to operate exclusively for charitable purposes.

1. Assist members in settling in their environment by providing basic services such as; legal information, adjustments of status, basic counseling, nutritional, medical assistance and emergency aid.
2. Help members stabilize and adapt to American society by aiding and facilitating tutorial services in English, Spanish, French and Creole. Provide reading and writing assistance to individuals and their families.

To encourage members both for-profit and not-for-profit to provide the necessary funding in order that the corporation may promote their specific and primary purposes nationally and internationally.

b. To take a direct personal interest in the members of The New Elglise De Dieu Self-Educational Pentecostal <sup>Inc.</sup> and provide positive solution methods to reverse the educational, physical, moral and economic social ills upon them, and thus make them better citizens within the community.

c. To encourage and foster positive communication among and on behalf of members in various disciplines who are engaged in development of new applications or translations of existing human techniques of responsible citizenship.

d. To supply free publications and physical services to its member(s) interested in promoting the application of the specific and primary purposes of this corporation with the end result of the self-educational process being responsible citizens within the community, forever. To publish writings, papers, books, pamphlets, periodicals and other publication in its branch of self-educational learning.

e. To collect and disseminate information regarding the process of integration in the American society.

f. To bring into membership existing churches, civil rights organizations, community organizations, governmental organizations, universities, American owned businesses, scientific and medical organizations, humane organizations, agricultural and industrial organizations, banking and loan associations, conservation and community associations, drug and child abuse organizations, family foundation, exceptional children organizations, and philanthropic organizations in order to develop and unified workable program to secure those inherent rights to life guaranteed by the Federal and State constitutions with the sharing of our specific and primary purposes and not-for-profit tax-exempt status.

g. To receive and maintain a fund or funds or real or personal property, or both, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for funding the activities of the corporation including self-educational scientific, literary or educational purposes either directly or be contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

h. To do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing specific and primary purposes or the general and objective purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its members, directors or officers.

i. To conduct a membership activity, not-for-profit, with the process of self-educational efforts in the self-education of our citizen members, their children and others, in remaining a responsible citizen, obeying local, State and Federal laws as written, and to offer responsible citizenship behavior to others.

j. To come to the economic aid and relief by sharing the specific and primary purposes for which the corporation was formed including its tax-exempt authority with its donors, subventioneers, good government schools, (private and public), nationally and internationally, as long as the members remain a "member in good and regular standing", evidenced by a membership certificate of the corporation.

k. To substantially relate the profit oriented business and non-business purposes of the members of New Elglise De Dieu Self-Educational Pentecostal, Inc. to and for the mutual use of the specific and primary purposes of the corporation(s) members, as such, all endeavors are not-for-profit.

l. To utilize and demonstrate the responsible citizenship behavior of our members to other new members, reversing many social ills upon new and old members as unemployment, inadequate housing, depression, alcholoic and drug abuse problems experienced by the members of the corporation, all contribute to the sharing and promotion of one or more of the specific and primary purposes of the corporation substantially relating those acts of charitable relief, all with a profit motive.

ARTICLE V

Tax Clause

It is the intention of this corporation at all times to qualify and remain qualified as exempt from income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as the same may from time to time be amended. Accordingly:

(a) The corporation is not to have authority to issue capital stock;

(b) The corporation shall not be conducted or operated for profit and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article(s) III (three) and IV (four) hereof. No part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Law.)

(c) Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Supreme Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(d) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and the corporation shall not (a) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Code; (b) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code; (c) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code; or (d) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 of the Code.

(e) The corporation shall not engage in any transaction described or defined as a "prohibited transaction" by Section 503 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 503 (c)), as the same may be amended from time to time; nor shall the income of the corporation be unreasonably accumulated or invested in such a manner as to jeopardize the carrying out of the purpose of the corporation within the intentment of Section 504 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A. Section 504 (a)), as the same may be amended from time to time.
