The undersigned, acting as incorporators of a corporation not for profit pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation, hereinafter referred to as the Corporation shall be:

Lee County Home School Association, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The Corporation's duration shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The Corporation shall be organized upon a nonstock basis. No stock in the Corporation shall at any time be issued.

ARTICLE IV

The initial principal place of business and mailing address of the Corporation shall be:

616 Willard Avenue
Lehigh Acres, Florida 33936

ARTICLE V

The Corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, through organizing and promoting athletics and sports.

ARTICLE VI

The Corporation shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national or ethnic origin. Only to the extent required by its religious tenets and allowed by law shall the Corporation make distinctions between boys and girls.

A Corporation Not For Profit

ARTICLE VII

The Corporation shall be specifically authorized to accept, receive and administer gifts and contributions of funds and property for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and any other corresponding provision of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue Law.

The Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any other corresponding provisions of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VIII

The Corporation is empowered to hold any property, or undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to make distributions of funds and property to one or more religious, charitable or educational organizations within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; to dispose of any property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income, in each instance in such manner as, in the judgment of its directors, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation, all without limitation except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such funds and property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, but in no instance for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of any of the directors or officers of the Corporation, or any private individual.

The Corporation shall not accept or retain any gift or contribution which is to be held or used for other than a religious, charitable or educational purpose. All gifts and contributions accepted by the Corporation shall be held, administered, and used in accordance with the provisions of the donative intent in the instrument under which such gift or contribution is received, to the end that the wishes and direction of the donor shall be faithfully observed and carried out to the fullest possible extent.

ARTICLE IX

No part of the income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer of the Corporation, except that compensation in a reasonable amount may be paid to its directors and officers for services rendered to or for the Corporation. No director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to one or more religious, charitable or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XI

No part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not directly participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE XII

The conduct and management of all of the affairs, activities and business of the Corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of a Board of Directors, who, subject only to provisions of law, these Articles of incorporation, and the By-laws of the Corporation, shall be authorized to exercise all corporate powers of the Corporation.

All members of the Board of Directors and officers of the Corporation shall be born again Christians. Further qualifications for members of the Board of Directors and officers and the manner of their admissions shall be regulated by the By-laws of the Corporation. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall be regulated by the By-laws of the Corporation, but at no time shall there be less than three (3) members. The President of the Corporation shall be a member of the Board of Directors by virtue of office.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, alter, amend, or repeal such By-laws as it shall deem proper providing for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Corporation not inconsistent with law or these Article of Incorporation. No amendment of these Articles of Incorporation or the By-laws of the Corporation shall be valid except upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the entire membership of the Board of Directors. Amendment may be made at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, provided the proposed amendment shall have been submitted by the Secretary to the membership of the Board of Directors not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered.
