ARTICLE VII

A. The affairs of the corporation shall be conducted and managed by its Board of Directors, which shall consist of not less than three directors. The first Board of Directors, named above, shall have the power to approve and adopt By-laws of the corporation until its successors are duly elected or appointed.

B. The qualifications, time and place of election, and term of office of each director shall be as provided in the By-laws.

C. The officers of the corporation may consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers and agents as may be specified in the By-laws. These officers shall be chosen, shall serve for such term, and shall have such duties as may be prescribed in the By-laws.

ARTICLE VIII

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, and no act of this corporation shall be affected in any way or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of this corporation are pecuniary or otherwise interested in, or are directors or officers of, such other corporation. Any director individually, or any firm of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniary or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of this corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action upon such contract or transaction shall be taken; and any director of this corporation who is so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors which shall authorize any such contract or transaction, with like force and effect as if he were not a director or officer of such other corporation or as if he were not so interested.

ARTICLE IX

A. Indemnification of Directors. The corporation shall indemnify any director who, by virtue of his being an officer or director of this corporation, is made a party to any action or proceeding, except when such director adjudged guilty of malfeasance in the discharge of his duties to the corporation. Indemnification shall be for all reasonable expenses incurred as a result of such action or proceeding.

B. Directors' Liability. No director shall be liable to the corporation for any loss or damage suffered on account of any action taken or omitted in good faith, provided such director exercised the same degree of care that a prudent man would have exercised in the conduct of his own affairs.

C. Reimbursement of Directors. In any action or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the corporation against a director, if the action or proceeding results in a decision in favor of the director, the corporation shall reimburse the director for all reasonable expenses incurred by him in the course of the action or proceeding.

ARTICLE X

The directors shall not be liable for illegal dividends or distributions made by the corporation, unless willful or negligent, if based on good faith reliance on representations made by officers or agents, or on records, as to the financial condition of the corporation.

ARTICLE XI

A. These Articles of Incorporation shall be amended upon approval by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII

The name and address of the incorporator of this corporation is:

Reverend Nicholas Proto
7780 SW 1st St.
Margate, Florida 33068

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and seal to these Articles of Incorporation this 31 day of August 1999.

Reverend Nicholas Proto
