A. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

B. No member, trustee, officer or private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious or scientific organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of competent jurisdiction, as provided by law, of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

C. The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

D. The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

E. The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

F. The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

G. The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

The membership of this corporation shall include members as provided in the corporation's bylaws without limitation as to race, gender, national origin, religious affiliation, or physical abilities.

All members shall have the same rights and privileges and each member shall be entitled to one (1) vote on all corporate matters requiring a vote of the membership. Except as otherwise provided by law, the members in attendance at any duly called meeting shall constitute a quorum and the majority vote of the members in attendance shall govern as to all matters requiring a vote of the membership.

ARTICLE VI - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors. The manner of election of the Board of Directors is as stated in the corporate bylaws. The number of directors which shall constitute the Board, may from time to time hereafter, be increased or decreased pursuant to any bylaw which shall have been enacted or more specifically ratified by an affirmative vote of the membership of the corporation at any annual meeting or at any special meeting called for such purpose, provided, no decrease in the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director.

ARTICLE VII - BYLAWS

The Board of Directors of the corporation may provide and adopt such bylaws that are necessary to conduct the business of the corporation and necessary for the carrying out of the corporation purposes.

ARTICLE VIII - PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS AND MAILING ADDRESS
