501(c)(3) Organizational Test

In order to meet the requirements of section 501(c)(3) of the Code, you must meet the organizational test prescribed by the Regulations. Your organization must be both "organized and operated exclusively" for one or more of the purposes specified in Section 501(c)(3) and your assets in operation and upon dissolution must be permanently dedicated to a 501(c)(3) purpose. A review of your Articles of Incorporation indicates that an amendment is necessary. The paragraph(s) checked below should be adopted by your organization and formally placed by amendment in your Articles of Incorporation.

Your amendment must be submitted to the appropriate State official for approval. You must provide us with a copy of the amendment to your Articles of Incorporation reflecting the seal and signature of the appropriate State official.

In the meantime, if you agree to amend your Articles of Incorporation, you must provide a conformed copy of the amendment signed and dated by a principal officer indicating the date it was unanimously adopted by the entire governing body. In addition, please have a principal officer complete the attached Certification Statement and return with your response. Any deviations from these instructions should be submitted to this office for approval prior to actual adoption.

☒ Article 12 Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes, within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)

☐ Article No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of Section 501(c)(3) purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)

☒ Article 13 Upon dissolution of this corporation assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, i.e. charitable, educational, religious or scientific, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose.

☒ Article 14 However, if the named recipient is not then in existence or no longer a qualified distributee, or unwilling or unable to accept the distribution, then the assets of this corporation shall be distributed to a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated exclusively for the purposes specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)
