ARTICLE VIII
Management of Corporate Affairs

(a) Board of Directors.

The powers of the corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors. The corporation shall have one director initially. The number of directors of the corporation may be increased or diminished from time to time by the bylaws but shall never be less than one. The method of selection of directors is stated in the bylaws of the corporation.

The directors named herein as the first Board of Directors shall hold office until the first meeting of members at which time an election of directors shall be held.

Directors elected at the first annual meeting, and at all times thereafter, shall serve for a term of one year or until the first annual meeting of members following the election of directors and until the qualification of the successors in office. Annual meeting shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place or places as the board of Directors may designate from time to time by resolution.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other documents filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of Directors without a meeting and that the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the corporation authorize the directors to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

The names and addresses of such first members of the board of directors are as follows: Heinz Dinter, 2401 S Miami Avenue, Miami, FL 33129-1527.

(b) Corporate Officers.

The Board of Directors shall elect the following officers: president, vice president, treasurer, and secretary and such other officers as the bylaws of the corporation may authorize, from time to time, the directors to elect. Initially, such officers shall be elected at the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION: THE INTERNET APPLICATION SERVICES INSTITUTE INC

ARTICLE IX
Indemnification

Every person who now is or hereafter shall be a director or officer of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all costs and expenses (including counsel fees) hereafter reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him or her in connection with, or resulting from, any action, suit or proceedings of whatever nature, to which he or she is or shall be made a party by reason of his or her being or having been a director or officer of the corporation (whether or not he or she is a director or officer of the corporation at the time he or she is made a party to such action, suit or proceeding, or at the time such cost or expense is incurred by or imposed upon him or her) except in relation to matters as to which he or she shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been derelict in the performance of his or her duties as such director or officer. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any such person may nor or hereafter be entitled to as a matter of law.

ARTICLE X
Membership

The membership of the corporation shall consist of all persons hereinafter named as directors and all other persons as, from time to time hereafter, may be elected to membership by the board of Directors. Qualification for membership shall be satisfied by all persons expressing an interest in the purposes of the corporation. The directors shall from time to time prescribe form and manner in which application may be made for membership and members may be admitted by the board of Directors only. The authorized number of the members of the corporation, the different classes of membership (if any), the property, voting, and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability for dues and assessments and the method of collection thereof shall be set forth in the bylaws.

ARTICLE XI Bylaws

The Board of Directors of the corporation may provide such bylaws for the conduct of the business of the corporation and the carrying out of its purposes as such directors may deem necessary from time to time. Upon notice given, the bylaws may be amended, altered or rescinded by majority vote of the directors present at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose, subject to any limitations set forth in the Corporations Not for Profit Law of Florida concerning corporate action that must be authorized or approved by members of the corporation.

ARTICLE XII
Amendments to Articles of Incorporation

An amendment to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by any member of the corporation, but such amendment may be adopted only after receiving an affirmative vote of the majority of the Board of directors.

ARTICLE XIII
Initial Registered Office and Agent

The name and address of the initial registered agent of the corporation is Heinz Dinter, 2401 S Miami Avenue, Miami, FL 33129-1527.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has made, subscribed and acknowledged these Articles of Incorporation on this 11th day of November, 1999, for the purpose of forming the corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida.

Heinz Dinter, Incorporator

ACCEPTANCE BY REGISTERED AGENT
