COMPENSATION AND INDEMNIFICATION
OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

A. Compensation. A director of the Corporation shall not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for services as a director. An officer of the Corporation shall not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for services as an officer, unless employed by the Board of Directors as (i) a member of the administrative staff of the Corporation, or (ii) for compensable services rendered in other capacities. These prohibitions shall not preclude reimbursement of a director, officer or duly appointed committee member for expenses or advances made for the Corporation that are reasonable in character and amount, not for compensable services rendered in other capacities, and approved for payment in the manner provided by the By-Laws.

B. Indemnification. Every director and officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees reasonably incurred by or imposed in connection with any proceeding (including any appeal thereof), or any settlement of any proceeding, to which a director or officer may be a party or may become involved by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation, whether or not a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except when the director or officer is adjudged guilty of or liable for willful malfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of duties; provided that, in the event of a settlement before entry of judgment, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled. Appropriate liability insurance shall be provided for every officer, director and agent of the Corporation in amounts determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Audit No. H99000032334 7

C. Interest of Directors and Officers in Contracts. Any contract, whether for compensation or otherwise, or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors or officers are stockholders or employees or in which they are interested, or between the Corporation and any corporation or association of which one or more of its directors or officers are shareholders, members, directors, officers or employees or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director(s) or officer(s) at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation which acts upon or in reference to such contract or transaction, and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known, in writing, to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors shall nevertheless authorize, approve and ratify such contract or transaction by vote of majority of the directors present, such interested director(s) or officer(s) to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present but not be counted in calculating the majority of such quorum necessary to carry such vote. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable thereto.

ARTICLE XI

CHARITABLE LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to the members, directors, or officers of the Corporation, or to any other private persons; nor shall the Corporation's assets or earnings be expended for the benefit of anyone other than a recipient of funds for charitable, educational, literary or scientific purposes; it being intended that all such earnings and assets shall be used and expended solely for the purposes stated in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth herein.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

In the event the Corporation is characterized as a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509, the Corporation, during the period of such characterization:

- a. Shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942;

- d. Shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944; and
- e. Shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d).

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3), or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2).

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the following manner: The Board of Directors may amend the Articles of Incorporation by a majority vote of the Board. Said amendment of the Articles of Incorporation shall be adopted by a majority vote of the Directors present and voting at a special meeting called for that purpose, provided notice of the proposed amendment has been forwarded to each Director not less than fifteen (15) or more than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which the amendment is to be voted upon.

ARTICLE XIII

DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

In the event of the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation by transfer to such organizations which are exempt under Section 501(c)(3) as are engaged in activities of the type described in Article II above, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
