ARTICLE IIIPURPOSES

The purposes for which the corporation is formed, and the business and the objects to be carried on and performed by it, are as follows:

(a) To collect from charitable persons, firms and corporations, either absolutely or in trust, by gift, conveyance, transfer, settlement, devise and bequest, or in any other manner or manners, lands, buildings, bonds, shares of corporate stock, monies, clothing, food and any and all other kinds of property by any name and nature and to manage and invest the same; to dispose of in any manner, and to distribute in the discretion of the Directors, any portion of income and/or corpus of said gifts, exclusively for:

1. Religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, but no part of such corpus or income shall inure to or be spent for the benefit of any director or private individual, and no part of the activities shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

2. The foregoing purposes shall, except when otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other clause of these Articles of Incorporation and shall each be regarded as independent, and construed as powers as well as purposes of the corporation. The Directors shall have complete discretion and control as to what portion of said property and property rights shall be devoted to each of said authorized purposes.

(b) This corporation shall engage, otherwise than as an insubstantial part of its activities, only in activities which in themselves are in furtherance of its stated purposes and upon its dissolution, any assets remaining after the payment of its debts shall be distributed to a charitable organization exempt from Federal income tax as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as now provided or hereafter amended.

(c) To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of such property and the income, principal and proceeds of such property, for any of the purposes set forth herein.

(d) To do such other things as are incidental to the purposes of the Corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish them.

ARTICLE IV

INITIAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors and such officers as they shall designate to perform the executive functions of the operation of the corporation. The Board of Directors shall be elected by the members of the corporation and shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) persons, the exact number to be determined and governed by the By-Laws. The three following named persons shall serve as the original Board of Directors:
