Dear Sir/Madam,

Enclosed you will find my application for renewal of my corporation with a check for $150.00.

I called and spoke to Mr. Andy Dunlop and he stated that if I send a letter stating the concerns/problems and a check for $150.00 to renew my corporation that this would be acceptable and your office would renew my corporation name.

I not receive the first notice. When I received this notice I sent it to my accountant who questioned why I need to renew when my corporation was to have become effective Jan 1, 2000 and had a "2000 number assignment". After speaking to my attorney who filed the corporation paper I learned that the business was incorporated on December 29, 1999 and he failed to request the new year dating. He believed since I signed the paperwork on December 29th that it would not be possible to process the paperwork before the new year effective date.

I have just received the forms back from my accountant and that is why I am just now submitting them to your office for renewal.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. I regret all the confusion this has caused. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at my office at 561-335-7355.

Sincerely,

Denise L. Blair, L.M.T.
