RE: Cristdan, Inc. 2000 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sir or Madam:

Cristdan, Inc. has retained me to represent it as its attorney. The former attorney never advised my client that they had to file a Uniform Business Report. Upon reviewing the corporate book with Daniel Dall'Armellina, I found that he never filed same nor did he receive the 2000 Uniform Business Report.

Accordingly, my secretary contacted your office and was advised to write a letter explaining same and send a check for the $155.00 ($150.00 plus $5.00 for the election campaign fund).

My client sincerely feels that he should not be made to pay the extra $400.00 in view of the fact that he had no knowledge that it was due nor did he receive same. I am now the attorney in this matter, as I stated, and this will not happen; we have a diary system and we advise all the clients to file prior to May 1st.
