TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
Dear Sir:

The present is to notify your office that when I requested the corporation late in December 1999, I told the lawyer to start business on January 1st, 2000, I paid him $1,000.00 dollars for this and he told me that it included all fees and dues for this matter.

I call your office and told me that the corporation was establish in the last week of December, therefore the fees I paid were for 1999, and beginning January 1st, 2000, again fees for the 2000 year were due in the amount of $150.00.

I DID NOT RECEIVE THE 1ST NOTICE that you office said it was sent to me, I only receive the attached one, stating that a late fee is now also due. I did not look or expect a bill from your office since I requested the attorney I hired, for business to start at the beginning of this year.

With this in consideration I will kindly request your office to waive this late fee filing charges and accept payment of the original filing fee of $150.00, which I'm now enclosing.

Thank for any assistance that you may be able to render, and if any questions should arise do not hesitate to contact me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Maritza Bracho
