- C. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the corporation, the holders of the Common Shares shall be entitled to receive for each share thereof an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares, less the sum of any dividends paid thereon, without interest, before any distribution of the assets of the corporation shall be made.

If, upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the assets of the corporation distributable as aforesaid among the holders of the Common Shares shall be insufficient to permit the payment to them of all amounts payable thereon, the entire assets shall be distributed ratably among the holders of the Common Shares.

A consolidation or merger of the corporation, a sale or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets, or any purchase or redemption of shares of the corporation of any class or series, shall not be regarded as a "liquidation, dissolution, or winding up" within the meaning of this paragraph.

- D. The corporation at the option of the board of directors may at any time or from time to time redeem all or any part of the Common Shares then outstanding upon notice duly given as hereinafter provided, by paying for each share thereof an amount determined reasonable by the board of directors, less the sum of any dividends paid thereon, without interest.
