Dear Secretary of State Harris,

This is the first correspondence that we have received from the state in this matter. On June 21, 2001, our attorney sent us a letter and a bill, which we paid. We certainly do not want to dissolve our corporation. We will gladly pay the annual fee to maintain the corporation. We thought that we had, by paying our attorney.

We are new to the world of corporations, as we are only a small art studio. Had we received any correspondence from the state, we would surely have responded. We do not think it just to penalize us for not replying to information that we did not receive.

Please allow us to file our 2001 corporate documents in the normal matter, and do not penalize us financially, by making us pay a reinstatement fee,

Sincerely,

Suzi K. Edwards

RE: Versatile Arts, Inc.

Dear Ms. Edwards,

Corporations are required by Statute to hold an annual meeting to elect officers and appoint directors and to keep the minute book current on an annual basis. In our review of Versatile Arts, Inc., it is time to hold the annual meeting. If you would like us to maintain the minute book for the Company, our fee for annual maintenance is $100.00 per year. This service includes our preparing annual meeting minutes and gentle reminders.

We have prepared the enclosed Shareholders' and Directors' Consent for signature. Please review the Consent and, if it needs any changes, let us know. Otherwise, please have the minutes signed where indicated and return them to us for placement in the minute book.

If you do not want us to maintain the minute book or if you have any questions, please let us know.

Very truly yours,

J. BENNETT GROCOCK, P.A.
