Re: INVISION ENTERPRISES, INC., #P00000003512

Gentlemen,

Enclosed with this letter to you please find 2002 Uniform Business Report which is being filed late on behalf of the above referenced concern.

The delay in filing this report is the result of a change in physical location of the concern and also a partial reorganization; the scope of such activity commenced during the latter stages of 2001 and is in the final stages at present. It seems as though the actual report which was received by us during January somehow managed to get packed away in one of the storage boxes containing some of the voluminous financial data of the business; this was apparently done in error and the report was not discovered until a few days ago when such financial records were actually unpacked and organized in the new office location.

It is therefore asked that we be allowed to file the report under normal circumstances, and also that any penalty / statutory assessments be waived. Accordingly, our check in the amount of $158.75 accompanies this letter and the report.

In closing, kindly accept my sincere thanks for any consideration and assistance rendered in this matter.

Sincerely,

Ervin R. Pilarczyk
C.E.O.
