Dear Sir or Madam:

On July 1, 2001 we received 2001 Uniform Business Report and is stated that it was due June 8, 2001. Because of this, we are to incur a filling fee of $550.00. We did not ever receive the first notice. We take great care with our mail and did not see any notice of this, in which I am told, came out in January.

We are a small company, which is just a little more then a year old. If there was notification when we open our company that this would be possibility that this could happen it was not stated well enough. We can hardly handle an expense such as this at this time and like to ask if there could any other alternative.

We are sending $150.00 for the original filing fee and hope you will promptly get back to us on alternative you will allow us.

It is our wish to be prompt and astute to all of our business concerns and I assure you we will be looking out for this filling fee this coming January.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

David A. Dyche
