Florida Department of State
Jim Smith
Secretary of State
Division of Corporations
PO Box 6327
Tallahassee, FL 32314

Dear Mr. Smith,

Upon the receipt of this notification of "Administrative Dissolution or Revocation" of our Corporation (California East Wallcoverings & Design Center, Inc.) I immediately notified a Mr. Tyron Scott at the phone number referenced on the Important Facts page of the Florida Department of State booklet I received. Mr. Scott was nice enough to look up the information on our corporation and told me that he did find that a check was received by the state (check #2119, dated 3/25/02, in the amount of $150.00) and cashed in April, well before the May 1st deadline.

Mr. Scott informed me that all I needed to do in order to rectify this situation was send in a letter, along with this "Reinstatement Form" explaining my situation. Mr. Scott said that I should be entitled to have any and all late fees waived as we did in fact complete all the necessary forms within the necessary timeframe. After our initial form was sent in and our check cashed, we never received any further correspondence from the State indicating that anything further was required and assumed our Corporate status was still in tact. Mr. Scott also said that due to the fact that our registered agent was the same as stated on the form, his signature WAS NOT required.

Please update our Corporate status to "active" as this is causing some problems for us with some of our advertisers, etc. as it appears we are no longer a Corporation.

Please notify us as to the date of this status update so that we may notify our vendors, advertisers, etc. accordingly.

Thanking you in advance for your help with this.

Joellen Parrish, President
California East Wallcovering and Design Center, Inc.
