Dear Examiner:

I was troubled when I received your "Notice of Administrative Dissolution" due to failure to file a Uniform Business Report as required by law for JA Solutions, Inc.

This business was formed in January 2000 so this is the first year a report needed to be filed. I did not receive any information regarding the requirements for this report, nor did I receive a second notice that you indicate was mailed by June 8th.

My business address and registered agent have changed – but this move did not take place until August 15th, 2001. I should have received your mailings at my previous address but did not.

In light of the fact that I did not receive the request and forms for the UBR or the follow up reminder, I am sending you the completed application for reinstatement, along with the application fee of $150, along with this letter explaining I never received notification. These instructions were provided on your phone message on 10/30/2001 for the help number of 850.245.6059 and were repeated when I spoke with one of your examiners.

~~Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. I have marked my calendar to be sure~~ and provide the UBR for next year. I regret that I was not informed in order to comply appropriately for this year. Please reinstate JA Solutions, Inc. as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Johanna M. Antes
