Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept the explanation why the enclosed form was not returned to the Division of Corporations in a timely manner. Be advised that the Registered Agent William D. Howes of this Corporation has made a temporary move to California. Due to the move we did not receive the paper work required to make the proper filing. After calling the Division of Corporations inquiring to the status of the sealed Articles of Incorporation, I was told the necessity of returning the Annual Report with the appropriate payment.

We ask at this time that you will accept the enclosed $150.00 and render any other charges on this account null and void as we were totally unaware of the requirement until today.

Sincerely,

William D. Horne

William D. Howes
