Dear Sir or Madam,

We are responding to your letter dated October 4, 2001, and immediately we called your office to straighten out the matter. Please note that we had not filed late since we sent out our Uniform Report on April 28, 2001 with the payment of $150.00. We did not understand why the mail was delayed and delivered to your office until May 23, 2001.

From the conversation between your representative and us, a letter had been sent to notify us. However, it was sent to our old address, so we never received your notice prior to the letter dated October 4. In light of the situation, we appreciate if you can kindly waive the penalty and reinstate the status of our corporation.

Thanks and best regards,

X

Lop Y. Chung, Director
