Annual Reports Section

Subject: Invision Publishing Company, Inc.

Reference Number: P00000007390

I received a letter dated May 24, 2001 (copy enclosed) instructing me that I had not filled in the number 4 block of the 2001 Uniform Business Report that I had overnighted (express mailed) to your Tallahassee office on April 29th.

Upon receipt of that letter I completed the information requested (FEI # 65-0980156) and returned it to your office on June 4th, 2001 (copy enclosed).

Shortly after that I received another UBR mailer reminding me that I must file within 60 days or face a rather healthy increase in filing fees. I figured our mailings must have passed in the mail and didn't think much about it after that.

Today, September 10th, I thought I'd make a call to your office to make sure my report was properly filed as the September 12th deadline was just around the corner. I was told that there was no record of my response to your department's May 24 letter nor did they have a copy of my 'updated' UBR on file. They, however, did tell me that they had on record that they were in receipt of my original UBR and my check for the $150 filing fee - of which I have a cancelled check for.

I was told by the gentlemen who handled my call to explain in writing the sequence of events leading up to today's phone call - and that's what I have done herein.

Please advise me of the status of my UBR filing at your earliest convenience.

I can be reached at my business or fax phone - or via e-mail at rjreal@home.com.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Regards,

Ronald J. Real
