I am responding to your correction letter above referenced. Please note that on speaking to your office on Friday September 16, 2005 they informed me that our company had $300.00 dollars on fiscal record validated April 2004 and May 2004 which was overlooked while processing our corporation reinstatement request. Please find your correction letter our original letter along with the $150.00 dollar check for the 2005 fees and completed annual reinstatement report form to insure the waiver of any additional fees.

Please update your records with the information shown in the reinstatement document. Should you have any questions regarding this information please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Re: Manso Truck Service, Inc.
Document # P00000007618

The following is to notify you that I did not receive your Uniform Annual Corporate Report for 2004 as well as your letter dated June 15, 2005. While speaking to your office I was informed that the company had been dissolved for failing to comply with the referenced letter within the 60 days given. I was informed that I should submit a new reinstatement form along with an explanation letter and the money due. This letter should serve as acknowledgment that I did not received any of your correspondence due to an address change.

Please find along with this letter the reinstatement form with its $600.00 dollar check and another $150.00 dollar check for the 2005 dues. Should you determine that the address change was a justifiable cause in not allowing me to receive your correspondence on time and in turn lead to the dissolution of the company, please return the $600.00 dollar check to:

Manso Truck Service, Inc.
4716 North Grady
Tampa, FL 33614

Please update your record with this new address as shown in the reinstatement document. Should you have any question regarding this information, please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Luis Palacio
