Gentlemen:

It has been noted that our corporation had been dissolved for non-filing of the annual report. We never received any forms or notices from the Division of Corporations concerning the annual report. In reviewing our information on line, it has been noted that our address is incorrect.

Our address should read:

Christian Ford Smith & Associates, P.A.
4741 Atlantic Blvd, Suite C
Jacksonville, Florida 32207

In our telephone conversation with your office, we were instructed to download the form for reinstatement and complete the form. We respectfully request that you accept our check enclosed and waive additional fees since we did not receive the original form.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

CHRISTIAN FORD SMITH & ASSOCIATES, P.A.

Gentlemen:

On November 2, 2001, we sent a corporate reinstatement form to your office along with a check and letter requesting acceptance of our check and waiving of additional fees since none of the notices or forms from the Division of Corporations concerning the annual report had been received by our office.

On December 4, 2001, we called your office to ascertain the status of our corporation reinstatement since we had not heard anything from your department. We were informed by Eula at your office that the form for reinstatement and check had been returned on November 22, 2001 requesting additional information as to officers and directors. As of this date, we have not received the letter. Eula advised us to resend the downloaded form as soon as possible.

Enclosed please find our check and form for reinstatement. We have also included a copy of the previous letter requesting reinstatement. We again respectfully request that you accept our check enclosed and waive additional fees since we did not receive the original form or the return letter.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

CHRISTIAN FORD SMITH & ASSOCIATES, P.A.
