To whom it may concern:

In June, a telephone call to your department revealed that the 2003 UBR had not been filed. I was instructed to pull an application off the Internet and submit with $150 and an explanation letter (copy attached).

The Division of Corporations cashed the check. Yet, I did not hear again until I received the following reinstatement application. I spoke with Justin of your office today who advised I complete this reinstatement application and resubmit with a copy of the letter I originally mailed in order to correct this situation.

Please advise if this is sufficient to maintain an "active" status. It would be greatly appreciated if this does not jeopardize my good standing with the State of Florida Division of Corporations.

If there are any questions, contact me at 754-234-9966. I look forward to resolving this matter as quickly as possible.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Hernandez, PD

UBR Filings
P.O. Box 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

To whom it may concern:

Upon recent review of my corporate status with the Division Of Corporations, it came to my attention that the UBR had not been filed. Please note that the annual forms that we customarily receive never arrived. For this reason, this filing had not been received.

Enclosed find payment to bring my filing status current. You may reach me at 954-467-9909 if there are any further questions or concerns.

There have not been any changes to Document #P00000008790.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Hernandez, PD
