To Whom It May Concern:

After recently applying for a small business loan, it has come to my attention that the status of my corporation, e-soccer.com, inc, is inactive. After phoning the Department of State, I was informed that this is due to a dissolution for annual report.

After filing all the necessary paperwork to establish my corporation in January of 2000, I have had two address changes and because of this I never received any renewal information. The woman I spoke with advised me to include this information in my request for a reinstatement. She also advised me that the fee to bring my status current would be $358.75 which I have included along with the reinstatement form. Please note the current address on the form as my permanent home address. Hopefully this will eliminate future problems. I appreciate your help in this matter. Should there be any additional requirements or information needed, please call me at 561-297-3743.

Sincerely,

Brian Dooley
President,
e-soccer.com, inc.
