Please, this is the second letter that I receive from the Florida Department of State and is making me nervous. I am a self-employed individual that only does the technical work in order to produce in this company. I hired a private accountant to do all my tax assignments. Last month I received my first letter addressing the 2002 (UBR) with a $400.00 late fee included. When I received the news from my accountant, I almost got into a car accident because I was driving at the moment. I honestly cannot make such payment with so little that I produce for the household. I ended up calling the Department and one of the staffs told me to go ahead and send in the regular $150.00 fee for the 2002 (UBR), so I did and now I get this letter adding $600 to the fee.

According to this letter, the $150.00 payment was received; my problem was that I did not send in a letter explaining my situation with the $150.00 check. This time I am and also sending in a copy of my second letter stating the $600.00 build up. Please, my family and I are in a very tough economical situation and I would really appreciate it if the Florida Department of State can give me a chance and waive the late fees. My family and I would really appreciate the consideration.

God Bless,

Carlos Alvarez, Jr.
