May 31, 2006

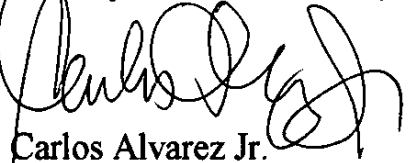

To whom may it concern,

My name is Carlos Alvarez Jr., I am the founder of MONSTRO PC Corp. Last year, I sent my Florida Corporation fee of $150.00 in May 2005 with a letter. After, I had family problems, going thru a divorce and my grandmother dying, the depression just made me stop working the business and I started helping out my parents with my grandmother paper works, etc. Then, since business was so slow, I started working with my cousin and moved to Tampa, FL.

Today, I am back at it again and would like to give the business a second chance here in Tampa, Fl., but now I look and see that my number P00000010461 is inactive. I called your office and they told me to print out the 2006 FOR PROFIT CORPORATION REINSTATEMENT form and mail it in with a letter (explaining why is it so late and you guys haven't heard from me), and with a check for $300.00, This will include the year 2005 and 2006.

Please waive my $600.00 fee, I never received the letter back from the mail and I was totally unaware of what was happening since I moved to Tampa. Please I beg you to waive my delinquent fee. I really cannot afford it right now, that is why I am trying to get the business back on its feet and produce for my family.

Thank you and God Bless,

Carlos Alvarez Jr.
