To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to request a waiver of any late fees or penalties associated with the following submission:

2001 UBR for The Hayley Corporation

On April 10, 2001, I mailed a completed 2001 UBR for this corporation along with the appropriate payment of $150.00. The report and payment were received in a timely fashion, and the Division deposited the check.

However, Division records indicate that the report was incomplete and that we were notified by mail of that fact. I do not remember receiving an incomplete records notice, and did not learn of the error until this week.

Therefore, I have attached another completed 2001 UBR for this corporation and a copy of the canceled check previously received by the Division for this report. I ask that you accept this second report, my previously paid amount of $150.00 and waive any late fees or penalties associated with the inadvertent and inconsequential error.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Bill J. Hebrock
President
The Hayley Corporation
