Dear Whom it may concern,

Hello! We are Molly and Friends of Munro International Inc. and we manufacture pet furniture. I established our corporation in February of 2000 to purchase the assets of the business I now operate and having been learning a lot since I started. Also during this time, our location for business has moved across four addresses. I am writing this to communicate the truth about how I never received information about the Uniform Business Report for 2001 and therefore have missed the filing date of May 1, 2001. I am requesting exemption and understanding from any late fees due to two reasons, the first being that any mail from the state of Florida concerning this matter never made it to me, most likely from the moving around, even though we had filed all the necessary paperwork with the post office. I simply did not know that this report had to be filed. And the second comes from my general inexperience. This is the first time we have had to renew our corporate file. I know now that it is necessary. I have learned so much in my first 18 months and pay my taxes regularly. However, there are so many! and I am always learning about new ones. As my experience grows along with our company, my accountants and lawyers will be involved in all these type of fiscal and legal requirements. However, as we are still young and limited on funds and the task of these jobs is left up to me. So, I am filing the paperwork along with the $150 fee and this notice about my reasons for tardiness. I appreciate your understanding and communication. Our address is new and all necessary information is on the form. If there are any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at the number above. Thank you for your understanding and any guidance as well. Take care.

Sincerely,

Tom Grant,
owner
