Re: South Broward Housing, Inc.

In June and then September 8, 2003, I sent a letter requesting that the late fee be waived for this company due to the fact that it did not receive the UBR when the company changed addresses.

When I went to check whether the company had been reinstated, I was advised that it was not as we had not paid a $ 300.00 fee. I am not sure that this meant that we did not receive the requested waiver; or due to some other reason.

In any event, I have included with this letter the signed UBR to 2003 and my trust account check for $ 300.00. Please reinstate the company immediately.

If for any reason you cannot reinstate the company, I would appreciate if you would send me an email advising me why not, so that I can make any required corrections or changes before you reject the proposed filing.

Thanks for your assistance.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Sincerely,

Ira B. Price
