To Whom It May Concern:

I was not aware of the responsibility to file Florida Annual Reports until recently. My former accountant never prepared nor told me of my obligation to file. I recently changed accountants after my former accountant failed to properly advise me on several issues. The new accountant informed me of my responsibility and prepared the enclosed forms for Corporate Reinstatement.

Please note that the business location and registered agent has changed.

I feel it is unjust to pay a late filing fee, as I never received the forms and the fact that my former accountant, whom should have known, never advised me.

As per my new accountant's conversation with your office, I am mailing this correspondence and checks for $150 for the delinquent year 2001 report and $150 for the current 2002 report, herewith being filed timely.

Sincerely yours,

Yosef Ben-Zur, President
Global Diamonds, Inc.
