Dear Ms. Golden:

Please find enclosed a modified original and a copy of the Articles of Incorporation, changing the corporate name which had been applied for from CDL, Inc. to C. Lee, Inc. Also, enclosed is a copy of your letter dated February 17, 2000.

As you indicated today, another corporation exists by the name of CLEA, Inc. I acknowledge that I have been made aware of this and wish to file my application with the name of C. Lee, Inc., which has been approved by your supervisor. C is the first letter of my first name (Chad) and Lee is my last name. I believe there is enough difference, in both spelling and form, to distinguish the two corporations in the public's eyes.

Please process this as expeditiously as possible, as other corporate matters must be concluded, all of which are contingent upon the acceptance of the Articles and the issuance of the corporate charter (document number).

Sincerely,

Chad D. Lee
