Dear Caseworker:

It has recently come to my attention through an embarrassing situation where I was about to receive my first revenue check, but I could not do to my corporation being dissolved for administration filing of my annual report. According to a phone conversation with a representative (850.245.6059) I was dissolved on September 19, 2001 due to UBR non-filing.

As an upstanding citizen and the incorporator of this company, acting in good faith at all times, I would like to appeal my case and not be penalized the reinstatement fee or the late UBR filing fee.

I just filled my SS-4 with the IRS on 7/01. I also moved from the former 1500 Bay Rd to my new address: 732 Euclid Ave Suite #4 Miami Beach, FL 33139. Though I did inform my local post office of this change of address, I did not receive my first or second UBR filing notice.

I apologize for any inconvenience this might have caused and as instructed, enclosed are a money order for $150.00, a completed UBR form, and this letter of appeals.

Sincerely,

John E. Rice
President
