RE: Document # P95000037655

Dear Sir or Madam:

In August of 1999, my employer, Carl A. Bailey II, was unexpectedly remanded into the custody of federal marshals due to the revocation of a bond. As his office manager, I was left to deal with the fall-out. Because we were nine months in arrears for office rent, I was forced to liquidate everything I possibly could and vacate the premises. The premises were finally vacated in November of 1999.

Mr. Bailey is now out of prison and questioned me just this morning about the corporate filing due May 1st. I did not recall mailing out the Annual Report and so I proceeded to go on-line and discovered I had not filed the Annual Report and apparently hadn't the year before either. The corporate status was inactive as of 09/21/2001 due to "ADMIN DISSOLUTION FOR ANNUAL REPORT". Noting the old address, I can only surmise the report had not been forwarded.

I called the phone number provided on-line for Reinstatements (850-245-6059) and Michelle confirmed that our Annual Report for 2001 had been returned to the Division of Corporations as undeliverable. She instructed me to complete the Reinstatements Form and remit the $300 fee ($150 for 2001 and $150 for 2002) and Bailey Development Corporation would become "ACTIVE".

Enclosed please find the executed Reinstatement form and a check in the amount of $308.75 for past and current dues, and the $8.75 fee for a current Certificate of Status.

Respectfully,

Melissa S Bishton
