Re: Visual Optics Inc.
P00000024003

Gentlemen:

We are the accountants for and did file for the corporation whose name appears above.

I received the form for the annual report in the mail on or about June 26, 2001. I never bothered to read it to see that it was a late filing form. If I had I would have written about it then.

I never received the original one that was due in May. If I had, don't you think I would have made sure that it was filed and paid timely, knowing that to be late would have to cost 550.00 I just never received it. Perhaps the postman who delivered the mail that day just saw Visual Optics Inc. on the letter and just figured there is no Visual Optics at this address and just took it back.

I am asking that based on this explanation, that the form that was sent back to you be accepted as filed timely, as it is not fair to penalize my client for something he knew nothing about and that I never received.

I usually have my office address on those important forms so that they are not lost or just filed away by the clients staff and never taken care of until they are late.

Thanking you in advance,

Very truly yours,

Budner & Associates Inc.
Mordecai Budner
