RE: Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation

To whom this may concern at the Division of Corporations;

Lovol Corporation missed the original filing deadline of May 1st 2001, a second notice from the State was never received. On October 22nd, 2001(Monday) the notice of Administrative Dissolution was received, and I (Joseph Linartas) immediately made a phone call to your offices. After explaining that I never received a second notice, your employee told me it would be best to write a letter and explain the situation.

It was my understanding that after the May 1st 2001 deadline, the corporate UBR was $550.00, I was not made aware that there was a September dissolution deadline. I also never received any notice other than the original notice(first notice) mailed to me.

My only explanation for never receiving the second notice sent by the State is that our mail does come to us in a cluster box(60 mail box's in one location). The post office has been known to mis-deliver mail on occasion. Fortunately I did receive the notice of dissolution and am taking immediate action. Had I been made aware the State had a September deadline for dissolution I would have filed the UBR as required.

This was the first year ever Lovol Corporation had to file a UBR, and therefore I ask that the amount of $550.00 be accepted, and that Lovol Corporation be reinstated with the State. In the future all deadlines will be met on time by Lovol Corporation.

Thank You in advance for your consideration,

Joseph Linartas, Director
Lovol Corporation
