DOCUMENT NUMBER P00000025223

Dear Sirs:

I have received the first request for a Uniform Business Report for my new corporation at my home address. I was surprised at the billed amount of $550.00. I was informed by my registered agent that this represents a $400.00 penalty. This report package was not received in January by me or my registered agent, Robert Stermer, Esquire, and I was not aware that I should have been expecting it earlier as my corporation was founded in March of 2000.

In the report, the address for the registered agent is in error (attached). I spoke with Mr. Stermer today. Please note the correct address as it appears in article V of the Articles of Incorporation. Also please note the change of address letter that was sent to your office on July 5, 2000 indicating my business address (also attached).

I am enclosing the UBR with the corrections along with my corporate check for $150.00, a copy of article V and a copy of the change of address letter.

I am now changing the registered agent to myself, so that all future correspondence will be directly received.

Please advise me if there are any additional items that you require.

Sincerely,

I. Cori Baill, M.D., P.A.
