Dear Sirs:

We recently received your 2001 UBR form requesting payment of $550.00. Upon seeking information from our CPA, we were advised that we should have received this same form in January or February requesting a $150.00 payment. We never received such a form and since we did not incorporate until April of 2000, did not know that any such form would be forthcoming.

I called your number, 850-488-9000, and spoke with "Andy" about the situation and he suggested I submit a check for $150.00 (enclosed) with a letter of explanation, in hopes we would not be penalized the additional $400.00.

—We pride ourselves in prompt payment of all bills and hope you will reconsider our situation.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Parsons
