Dear Ms Ashton,

Per our telephone conversation today, I am explaining to you that I never received a letter in February indicating that my form was improperly filled out. I received notification in July that I was being penalized $400.00 late fee for not filing and I responded on Aug 10th that I did file and pd check $150.00 #351 (see attached). (It was paid February 2, 2001 by the bank, I mailed to you 1/31/01.)

The letter dated August 22, 2001 said to file the document along w/ a letter explaining the circumstance why not been done earlier, or to call w/ questions @ your office. I did call your office in September, explaining I would submit letter of explanation, however, haven't had a chance because I've recently been diagnosed w/ bone cancer and been undergoing all kinds of tests, etc.

Most days, I'm in terrible pain and can't even think.

Today, I received a notice that my corporation was being dissolved. I called you to explain once again the matter and told to write the letter of explanation.

This is my 1st year in business as a corporation. I paid my fee of $150⁰⁰ in a timely manner and filed the form with you back in January, however, being that I ~~was~~ am the President of the Corp, I ~~was~~ had an oversight on the stating of the officer & name.

Please accept this form as filed correctly now and re-instate my corporation as it never should have been dissolved. I apologize for the misunderstanding and being I've never done this before I need you to waive all the excess fees & penalties. I should never had a penalty, if I would have rec'd the letter back in February it would have been avoided. I don't know where that letter went, but I can assure you
