Re: Perez-Vichot & Associates, Inc.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

Our clients have recently learned that the above corporation was administratively resolved for not filing the corporate report for the year 2002.

Please excuse our delay in submitting the late report and we respectfully ask that you waive our reinstating fees. We never received last year's annual report and it is our understanding the same was returned to your office unclaimed. Kindly review your records that should indicate that the report was never delivered to this office or to any officer of the corporation. This letter should confirm to you that my client never received said annual report as registered agent or officer(s) of the corporation. Furthermore, no further communications from the Division of Corporations concerning the above corporation were received in my client's office.

Attached please find our check for $300.00 to cover your fees and the annual report and reinstatement report connected to the above.

Sincerely,

Sergio J. Guzman
