Re: Jet PC.com

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to inform your department that we have never received any of the documentation needed to keep the corporation open. I sincerely did not remember that the corporation needed papers sent to the state. As you know of the World Trade Center incident, my fiancée was in the building. This whole mess has turned my world upside down. Thank God he got out in time and is in good health. I am requesting that you waive all fees due to this unfortunate situation, which was beyond all control. Your Immediate attention in this matter is greatly appreciated. Enclosed are all the papers that you will need to re-open the corporation.

Sincerely,

A. Waite
