Dear Sirs,

Enclosed with this letter is the completed UBR form which we received recently.

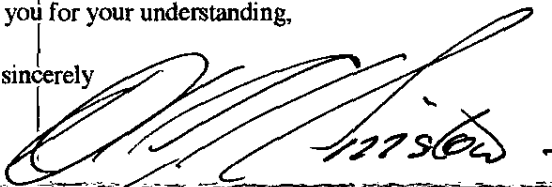

We noticed that this was a second request as you had not received the report on time.

During a telephone conversation with your office, it was explained that this was our first trading year in the USA, and that we had not received your first request. On examination of the circumstances, it became obvious to your operator, that we had given notice of our change of address which was entered into your system on the 9th February 2001 and the first forms were mailed out shortly before that. The conclusion is that the form must have gone to the previous address and was not forwarded on to us.

I hope, that under the circumstances, you will agree to waive the excess charge and accept our cheque for $150 which I am told would have been the original fee.

Thank you for your understanding,

Yours sincerely

David W.G. Winslow
President
