To Whom It May Concern

I am writing this letter, to ask for a opportunity to pay the amount I owe, since I was out of town and I sent the payment back in April.

When I return, I found the document telling me that I needed to pay $ 550.00, I called my Bank immediately to find out if the check I sent was cashed, and it wasn't, I stopped the check and called your office and one of the officers asked me to mail a letter and the payment of $ 150.00.
See attached payment.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Rayner", written over a large, loopy flourish.
