Re: Laurmet, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is the completed Application for Reinstatement for Laurmet, Inc., along with a check made payable to Department of State in the amount of $150.

As you can see, the address shows Apartment 806. The correct address is Apartment 202. Since the original notice was sent to Apartment 806, my client never received it. This is a condominium complex and the only name on the application was Laurmet, Inc. The people who handle the mail at the condominium did not know who owned Laurmet, Inc. Mrs. Regan, an officer of the corporation, just happened to be in the office of the condominium and saw the reinstatement application. It was by pure coincidence that she got the reinstatement application. In addition, since this was the first time for sending a Uniform Business Report, the client was unaware of this filing requirement.

Due to the fact that this notice was the first one actually received by Laurmet, Inc., we are requesting that the Application for Reinstatement be accepted with the $150 payment.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

KERKERING, BARBERIO & CO., P.A.
