ARTICLE VIII - INCORPORATOR

The name and address of the person signing these Articles is: Alvaro L. Mejer, Esq., Armstrong & Mejer, P.A., Suite 1111 -

2600 Douglas Road, Coral Gables, Florida 33134.

ARTICLE IX - SPECIAL PROVISIONS

The corporation shall have all corporate powers permitted under the laws of the United States and of the State of Florida. The following additional provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the power of the corporation, its stockholders and directors, are adopted as part of these Articles of Incorporation:

1. No person shall be required to own, hold or control stock in the corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in this corporation.

2. The directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost certificates and prescribe reasonable security conditions upon issuance of new certificates for lost certificates.

3. The original incorporators of the corporation shall have the right upon its organization to assign and deliver their subscriptions of stock as set forth in Article IV to any other person, or to firms or corporations who become subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation. Upon acceptance of such assignments, such assignees shall stand in lieu of the original incorporators and assume and carry out all rights, liabilities and duties entailed by said subscriptions, subject to the laws of the State of Florida and to execution of the necessary instruments of assignment.

4. In the absence of fraud, no contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that one or more directors of the corporation are interested in or are directors or officers of such other corporation. In the absence of fraud, no contract, act or transaction of the corporation with any person or persons, firms or corporations shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director of the corporation is a party to or interested in such contract, act or transaction or in any way connected with such person or persons, firms or corporations. Each person who becomes a director of the corporation is relieved from any liability that otherwise might exist from contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he otherwise may be interested in the absence of fraud. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company.

5. The corporation shall indemnify any and all of its present and past directors and officers and any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in connection with defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which they or any of them has been made a party or parties by reason of having been or being a director or officer or directors or officers of the corporation or of such other corporation, except in relation to matters as to which any such present or past director or officer or person shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under the By-Laws, agreement, vote of stockholders, or otherwise. Such right of indemnification, however, shall not extend to or include indemnification for liabilities arising under the federal securities acts as amended.

6. By affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office and irrespective of any personal interest of any of its members, the Board of Directors shall have authority to establish reasonable compensation of all directors for services to the corporation as directors, officers, and otherwise. In addition to the authority to establish salaries, the authority vested in the Board of Directors by this Paragraph 6 shall include the authority to establish the payment of bonuses, stock options, and pension and profit sharing plans.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned subscriber has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 24 day of March, 2000.
