(a) Powers of directors to amend by-laws. The Board of Directors shall be authorized and empowered from time to time in its discretion to make, alter, or repeal the by-laws of the corporation, except as such power may be limited by any one or more by-laws of the corporation adopted by the stockholders.

(c) Cumulative voting. At all elections of the directors, each stockholder shall be entitled to as many votes as shall equal the number of votes which he would have been entitled to cast for the election of the directors with respect to his shares of stock multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, and that he may cast all such votes for a single director or may distribute them among the number to be voted for, or for any two or more of them as he may see fit.

(d) Consent of stockholders in lieu of meeting. Whenever the vote of stockholders is required at a meeting or is permitted to be taken for in connection with any corporate action by any provision of the General Corporation Law of the State of Florida the meeting and vote of

Such preemptive right shall apply to all shares issued after such first four hundred (400) shares, whether such additional shares constitute shares held in the treasury of the corporation, and shall be exercised in the respective ration with the number of shares held by each stockholder at the time of such issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding in the names of all the stockholders at such time.

13. Greater voting requirements: The affirmative vote of the majority of the directors shall be necessary for the transaction of any business at any meeting of directors, except in the case of a proposal to borrow money on the corporation's credit, in which case the favorable vote of all the directors shall be necessary.

- (b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.
- (c) The corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:
- (1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director adjudged liable to the corporation; or
 - (2) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him or her, whether or not involving action in their official capacity, in which they were adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by that individual.
- (d) Indemnification permitted under this section is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.
- (e) The corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which they were a party to because of their role as a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by them in connection with the proceeding.
- (f) The corporation pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:
- (1) the director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation in good faith belief that they met the standard of conduct prescribed in this section; and
 - (2) the director furnished the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on their behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined
