To Whom It May Concern:

I am respectfully requesting that the Department of State waive the $400.00 late filing fee for our Corporation's 2001 Uniform Business Report. We filed our Articles of Incorporation in March of 2000 as required by law and obtained all our state and local licenses and permits. Since we are a newly formed organization, we have relied on our attorneys counsel in regards to non-tax administrative filing requirements. We were led to believe that his office was handling all filing requirements and we did not learn from him until a few days ago that we actually had to file Form 2001 UBR. We have retained a CPA to handle all our accounting functions going forward. We feel confident this move will greatly assist us in meeting all statutory deadlines in upcoming years.

Since the return was inadvertently filed after the May 1st deadline and since we are a newly established Florida corporation, we respectfully request that the penalty be waived. I have taken the liberty of enclosing the required filing fee of $150.00.

We look forward to successful operations in Florida and will assure you that we will timely file future reports.

Respectfully,

Daniel P. Carmody
