RE: Document # P00000036576

Dear Representative:

I am writing to you today because we are sending our Uniform Business Report late. Since we bought a franchise of Chicken Kitchen Corp., we have been trying to get everything ready to open our business. The new business location will be:

6985 West Broward Boulevard, Plantation, Florida, 33317.

On top of that, I am moving from my house in Miami to an apartment in Plantation, so that I may be closer to the business. Since I have been busy packing everything, I have had a hard time keeping up with the paperwork and payments.

I realized I had not filed the UBR form when I went to look for the Certificate of Status to present it to the bank for a loan we are applying for. I immediately called the number listed on the form to explain my situation to your department. The lady that took my call was very kind and understanding (I am sorry to say I do not have her name to thank her properly.) She told me to send a letter stating the reason for the delay in filing, together with the UBR and a check for $150.00. I am doing as she told me today with the hope that you will also understand that I did not file on time not because I did not care, but because I am overwhelmed with so many responsibilities.

Should you need to reach me, please call me at (305) 803-7776 or (954) 829-4947. I truly thank you for your time and for the consideration you give to this letter.

Very truly yours,

Paola A. Ortiz
